Chantal Vergouw to move from Interpolis to KPN

Zeist/Tilburg, 27 March 2023 – Chantal Vergouw has been nominated to join KPN's Executive Board as of 1 June 2023. She has worked at Achmea as divisional chair of Interpolis since mid-2016.

Bianca Tetteroo, chair of Achmea's Executive Board: "Firstly, I would like to congratulate Chantal on this great appointment. We are sorry she is leaving but are proud that she has been invited to take this position. Over the past seven years, Chantal has provided particularly inspirational leadership to Interpolis, including the significant, unifying role she has played in the successful partnership with Rabobank during this period. Her engaging personality and great commitment have contributed to Interpolis being where it is today. For that we are very grateful to Chantal. We wish her much pleasure and every success at KPN."

Chantal Vergouw: "Seven years ago I started an exceptionally beautiful period of my working life. I have contributed with heart and soul to the development of Interpolis. It is great to see where the business is now and what excellent growth opportunities there still are. I feel very engaged with colleagues, customers and other stakeholders. I am proud of Interpolis and I am sure that I will miss the dynamics of the company and the insurance industry."

It is not yet known who will succeed Chantal. The procedure for her succession has now started.
