Press release

Achmea appoints Rogier Peters member of the Executive Board and Chief Risk Officer

Zeist, 14 April 2026 – Rogier Peters will be appointed as a member of the Executive Board and Chief Risk Officer (CRO) of Achmea, effective 1 October 2026. He will succeed Michiel Delfos, who will step down on the same date. Rogier Peters has held the position of CRO at international insurer MSIG Europe, which specialises in commercial non-life and maritime insurance, since 2020.

Rogier Peters is an experienced insurance executive and an expert in risk management with an actuarial background. He has worked in the international insurance sector for more than twenty years and previously held CRO roles at Ageas UK and Etiqa, among others. His career began in actuarial practice at Tillinghast Towers Perrin, Aegon and Fortis. He studied Actuarial Science at the University of Amsterdam and followed supplementary courses in Asset Liability Management (ALM) and risk management.

Bianca Tetteroo, Chair of the Executive Board of Achmea: “Rogier’s appointment strengthens the integrated risk perspective within the Executive Board. Given his actuarial and international background, I am confident that he will make a valuable contribution to the execution of our strategy towards 2030, with a focus on integrated risk management. We are pleased to be able to welcome someone of his calibre and look forward to working with him.”

Jan van den Berg, Chair of the Supervisory Board of Achmea: “Rogier is a versatile executive with in-depth knowledge of risk management within complex financial institutions. I am pleased that the Executive Board will maintain its full strength. His appointment provides the right balance of expertise, international experience, leadership skills and personalities within the Board.”

Composition of the Board
The newly composed Executive Board will comprise of Bianca Tetteroo (Chair), Michel Lamie (Vice-Chair and CFO), Rogier Peters (CRO), Daphne de Kluis, Robert Otto and Lidwien Suur.

The appointment of Rogier Peters has been approved by De Nederlandsche Bank (DNB) and received a positive recommendation from the Central Works Council. His appointment was discussed at Achmea’s General Meeting today.

About Achmea
Achmea is a broad financial services company based in the Netherlands. The company also operates internationally, including in Türkiye, Greece, Cyprus, Slovakia, Australia, Germany, Spain and Romania. In the Netherlands, Achmea operates under strong brands such as Centraal Beheer, Interpolis and Zilveren Kruis. We help people get on with their lives when that's what matters most. For 215 years, we've been here both for and due to our customers, as well as for society at large. Together with our customers and partners, we solve major social issues relating to health, living and working, mobility and income. This is how we create sustainable value for our customers, our employees, our company and society. Previous generations have been able to rely on us, and future generations can do so too.

In 2025, Achmea's customers paid approximately € 27.5 billion in premiums, with approximately € 2.2 billion of this in our international activities. Achmea is the market leader in the Netherlands for Non-life and Health, and is a top three player in pension and life insurances. Under the name of Retirement Services, Achmea offers consumers, employers and institutional customers a complete package of products and services. We do this via Achmea Pension & Life Insurance, Achmea Investment Management, Achmea Real Estate, Achmea Bank, Achmea Mortgages, Achmea Pension Services, and Centraal Beheer PPI.

Achmea has around 18,000 full-time employees globally, more than 14,000 of whom work in the Netherlands.
