Achmea Investment Management completes acquisition of BSG Asset Management

Zeist, 31 December 2024 – Achmea Investment Management (Achmea IM) has officially completed the acquisition of Blue Sky Group Asset Management today. The acquisition, announced in July 2024, has received regulatory approval and positive advice from the works councils.

With this acquisition, Achmea IM strengthens its position in the asset management industry and further expands its services. Achmea IM will now provide fiduciary management and asset management for KLM's three pension funds, among others. Additionally, the company welcomes approximately 35 employees from Blue Sky Group, who collectively manage €25 billion in assets for over 55,000 participants.

The completion of this strategic step highlights Achmea IM's leading position in fiduciary management. It brings economies of scale and accelerates the development of impact investing.
