

PRESS RELEASE ACHMEA BANK

Achmea takes the next step in the process of combining its mortgage activities by setting up a separate account

Tilburg/Amsterdam, 4 August 2020 - Achmea wants to grow its mortgage activities. Syntrus Achmea Real Estate & Finance therefore intends to set up a separate account in order to provide mortgages through the Centraal Beheer brand. This allows Dutch and international institutional investors to invest directly in their individual Dutch residential mortgage portfolios with the risk profile they want. Through this, Achmea offers a wider range of options to institutional investors.

Achmea Bank intends to invest in the separate account and its future mortgage production will be originated through Syntrus Achmea.

This expansion of its service to institutional investors allows Achmea to enhance its strengths in the housing and mortgage markets and to grow its market share. As a result, it can be of even greater service to institutional investors with appropriate and sustainable mortgage solutions.

This is another step forwards for Achmea in the previously announced process of combining its mortgage activities.

The creation of the separate account is subject to the approval of the relevant regulators and other stakeholders, including the Supervisory Boards.
